

The capital of Australia is Canberra; the biggest city is Sydney.

Australia

Australian Flag is blue with a British flag and stars.

The Sydney Opera House is one of the wonders of the modern world.

The first people in Australia were Aborigines.

Uluru (Ayers Rock) is a very large rock, the world's largest monolith.

Australia has some very poisonous snakes and spiders. At school children have to learn first aid for snakes and spiders bites.

James Cook discovered Australia. Later British was sending their prisoners there.

A lot of Australia's animals, like the kangaroo, the koala and the Platypus, are unique.

Australian English sounds quite different from British and American English, and has a lot of unusual slang words. For example 'daks' - trousers, 'sunnies' - sunglasses.

Australia is the flattest and the driest world continent.

Australia is the sixth largest country in the world. It is an island and it is located on the world's smallest continent.

An Australian cowgirl - Jillaroo

An Australian cowboy - Jackaroo

They pay with Australian dollar.

The climate in Australia is very warm, so Australians love sport like swimming, scuba-diving, surfing and cricket.

In Australia there are some huge farms with millions of sheep and cattle. The children on these farms can't go to school because the nearest town is too far away. They study at home and they listen to their teacher on the radio.

